

Count the Cues

If you don't see them you can't read with them!

In-struc-tionS: count the cueS you see and write the num-ber in each word a-bove it.

- 1) You can i-ma-gine how the big boyS and girls felt when A-bra-ham Linc-oln proved that he could spell and read bet-ter than any of them.
- 2) One win-ter day Boone and hiS bro-ther-in-law were cap-tured by In-di-anS.
- 3) This is an example of PCUES, a new lay-er of our wri-ting sys-tem that useS var-i-a-tionS in the a-ppear-anCe of let-terS to re-duce the con-fu-sion in-vol-ved in learn-ing to read.
- 4) The 'sh' you hear in sh-ould and shift soundS like the 'sh' you hear in na-tion and de-pres-sion.
- 5) Dur-ing the four yearS in which Thom-as Edj-son waS a train-boy, he had earned tw^o th-ou-Sand dol-larS and giv-en it all to hiS par-ents.

- 6) What we eat di·rect·ly a·ffect^s our health.
- 7) When the warm air ri·se^s from the ground, the cold air near·by ru·she^s in to fill its place.
- 8) Dust from the ground blow^s in·to the sky and be·come^s part^s of the cloud^s.
- 9) They need·ed to know how long and how wide the land they farmed wa^s.
- 10) In re·cent year^s, peo·ple have con·tin·ued to come to A·me·ri·can in hope^s of a bet·ter life.
- 11) You must al·so read all the de·tail^s, even de·tail^s that seem un·im·por·tant.
- 12) Po·lice·wo·men, who once worked on·ly at desk^s or in court^s, now ride in pa·trol cars and an·swer calls for help.
- 13) At the circus or the zoo, there are al·way^s peo·ple with big bag^s of pop·corn.
- 14) Un·til a·bout 1800, well·dressed men wore short pant^s and long stock·ing^s.